ABOUT MATTHEW

An executive-level leader with over 25 years of experience, Matthew brings strategic and transformational leadership to businesses and non-profits. He is a Chesterton aficionado and a founding executive board member of a Catholic historic preservation society. Matthew is a husband and a father of 8 children with more than twenty years' experience as a parent-volunteer at Seton School, an independent Catholic school founded by Dr. Warren Carroll and Mrs. Anne Carroll of Christendom College.

EXPERIENCE

Matthew is an executive in the Intelligence Community, Department of Defense, and global commercial markets space, with expertise in Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Machine Learning (ML) solutions for e-commerce, data analysis, process improvement, and optimization. He is also a cancer care strategist who helps patients and families around the globe identify innovative medical options and navigate complex healthcare marketplaces.
